Maintain the unity practically which Christ has effected positionally by his death. This is the thing that we are going to see in this Epistle to the Ephesians. Because Pauline theology and some quotations and allusions were certainly known at the end of the 1st century, the Pauline Letters probably were collected and circulated for general church use by the end of the 1st century or soon .

Apossible date is shortly after Colossians, in the early 2nd century. Headmi
To my younger brethren in the ministry may I take the liberty of recommending these Commentaries as an excellent model for expounding the inspired Epistles? My subject is not without its difficulties. On any other supposition, the statements
