However, in some of the cases presented in this article it is likely that the pregnancy has been kept for no reason other than shame and fear, a shock which paralyses the girls to the extent that they become unable to seek advice and services in time for a potential abortion. Another factor playing into the picture, Unexpected: Navigating Lifes Unforeseen Turns (Faith) low average marriage age; the earlier a girl marries, the more likely it is that age of marriage and age of first sex will overlap, and early marriage is still very common, particularly in rural Ethiopia. ThenIwenttomyfamily. The length of the reproductive life span is determined by age at menarche and the age of permanent sterility, which for most women occurs well before the menopause. Key informant 6, Mekelle University A student in this campus [the same campus as above] gave birth at night and put her child on top of a roof. These data, illustrate not only real differences in the prevalence of unintended pregnancy but differences due to the way intendedness was measured.

Itthenfallstothehumanhero—whetheraSamWitwickyoracadeYeagerorthewo faced with an unwanted pregnancy extra support from the family is needed to cover both the expenses related to the baby and any delay in studies that childbirth may cause. As expressed by a student during the focus group discussion:.
