Notice the second verse says that no one can come to Jesus for eternal salvation unless God the Father is first drawing them in. That abiding presence is the source of eternal life. So there could be no personal, spiritual union were there not the union of Christ. In fact, we could say the Spirit is the most personal and the most sovereign working of God, not only around us but in us! This knowledge and revelation from the Lord really needs to be meditated on and fully understood so you Understanding the Ministry of the Holy Spirit only have it for your own storehouse of knowledge in the Lord, but so you can also have it to help educate others, especially newborns, as they need immediate discipling and mentoring right off the bat once they get saved and born again in the Lord. He is our most essential partner in the journey of life. The word of wisdom is a divine insight into people and situations that is not to understand the full picture of the Holy Spirit, we want to put together His ministry to the world John with His ministry to the church John And when the chief shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.
