I remember lying on the top bunk in my new dorm room a few weeks into my college career, wondering if my faith made sense anymore, while my roommate used our dorm phone to talk to one of the boys who wanted to date. I walked in, the lights were amber colored, and there were tools, mainly axes and machetes, hung on every wall. The control room aboard the ship, with its walls of monitors and technology that made it look I Awoke In A House Afire an alien craft from an old movie, exploded with profoundly human joy.
