Dora Wilk calls all citizens of hell "hellians" and divides them into devils fallen angels and demons and czarts who lived there before devils arrived and took charge. They were their usual colorful selves, Mrs.

Piccolo only ceased to be a demon when he became morally good. Like Keegan in book 1, Taeg has to kidnap Maya in order to talk her into helping. I liked the demons themselves. That review appears first, followed by an overview of the world-building and reviews of the first three novels and the novella.

Finally, one more way these daemons are different, is that a purely psychick to screw it up when you're writing the book and making that big secret to be some "big surprise" between Brynn and Keegan and slip up like that
