At first, I felt the comments almost ruined the tone of the article for me. Finally I tossed him his old pom-poms from when he was a cheerleader and said, "Here, make yourself useful!

Life is much easier if you just make stuff up, as the anchors at CNN will attest. Showing Forlorn, he goes to Central Park and sits down on a bench, fantasizing that he will get pneumonia and have a funeral that people have to attend.

When I finished, she laughed and said, "Wow, I don't remember that at all. Nobody did."
