That is, critical inquiry is directed away from the current conditions of labor, economic and cultural flow across national borders, the globalization of power in relation to institutional dynamics, curricular change, situated reflection, and conjunctural analysis, and the general day-to-day workings of academe—at the very moment in which these are the sites through which neoliberal goals are being advanced. House, Veronica. Most importantly, the process of making zines allows students to forge their own publics and forums.

An emphasis on autonomous personhood is embodied in and through professional writing. The recent Mt. Critical pedagogy goes beyond understanding the social production of common sense—it turns our attention to the situated social locations in which this common sense is produced and reproduced.
