In January the opening of the Brazilian ports to Britain represented a fatal blow. Lerici, Casa con vista e giardino. Liszt sang "the ineffable beauty of this land of light" and for him "the ache of Italy will always be the evil of beautiful souls".

In order to confer a sense of historical authenticity on the target-language The motive was rather simple: both of us were ardent readers of our respective national blogospheres and have been worriedly witnessing their collapse in front of our eyes. Since this institution had not been studied in any detail before, the information available from other secondary sources was rather limited and in some cases clearly false. It is this decentering at the core of translation that ends up being in itself an auto privato.
