Both the place and the hour were opportune for the appearance of the Reformer. As when the simoom passes over the plain, brushing from its surface with its hot breath the flowers and verdure that cover it, and leaving only an expanse of withered herbs, so passed the tempest of Austrian bigotry over Bohemia and Hungary. The next year, following his victory in the Count's War he became king as Christian III and continued the
