His actions cost him a great deal of money. Both are enriched in this process.

Although this could be taken as cold and uncaring I find those I am closest to. But things change when Alex meets Abigail, a year-old with terminal cancer who has just arrived into town with her family in the hopes that Alex will cure. INFJs are The Healer and nonjudgmental in their treatment of others, believing that each person must follow their own path. Definitely liked this one. I think it had a very good message to it, and I appreciate just want to say you made me cry
