I really enjoyed it and loved learning about a part of history I have not heard much. The experiences of Wen-shan and her friends Jun-Jai and Liying make you feel like you're joining your own friends for an adventure, while the relationship between Wen-shan and her uncle Zhao make you want to improve your relationships with your own family members.

All6discsincluded. Moving there, earning a spot on a professional soccer team, touring nearly the entire country as a back-up dancer, and then starting a movement that involves running down the entire coast of the country picking up tons literally tons of trash along the way? I got so into the book that I found it hard to put . IthinkIhaveaninklingThe author has a great way of helping all us be thankful for our freedoms and freedom to worship.
