At about the same time, the word "humanism" as a philosophy centred on humankind as opposed to institutionalised religion was also being used in Germany by the Left Hegelians Arnold Ruge and Karl Marx who were critical of the close involvement of the church in the German government. But the cost of the damage caused by such selfish lack of concern is much greater than the economic benefits to be obtained.

For their part, numerous Bishops in every part of the world have contributed. Together with them, the Catholic Church is convinced that from the common heritage of social teachings preserved by the living tradition of the people of God there will come motivations and orientations for an ever closer cooperation in the promotion of justice and peace[13]. It is explored in all its social and political expressions so that a proper evaluation may be made in the light of the doctrinal principles founded on Revelation and on natural law and morality.

These become historical action, which is the origin of the manner in which the reason is very important, and argumentation and inference play a major part in Indian religious thinking.
